

IT WILL BE A RACE.

Priddy and McClelland to Meet To-night to Make a Match to Run Five Miles.

BOTH RUNNERS WANT A CONTEST.

The Final Deposit Made for the Interesting Sprint Race Between J. Priddy and Hammond.

THE LOUISVILLES ARE SHUT OUT.

Results of the Running Race—Baseball News and General Sporting Events of the Day.

There is now something like a certainty about a race taking place between Peter Priddy and E. C. McClelland. The former has made up his mind to run McClelland a five-mile race on this day four weeks for $250, or any amount, a side and all the gate receipts. Priddy desires that McClelland will be at this office this evening at 8 o'clock with the money to put up to guarantee a race.

On the other hand the McClelland party would like to see Priddy run with their money and as a result one of the most sensational races of recent years is likely to take place. Each man is named to be a record breaker at the distance named and the amount of envy existing between the pair is more prompting toward a good race than all the money that could be staked. Both parties are sure to enter into this contest with a full heart. It is a fact that they both have been exercising energetically on the quiet for some time. Doubtless if they run on a good track and on a fine day there will be a large crowd to see them, as one of the best horse races in the city is to be seen. Both have extremely good judges behind them and lots of money.

There will be a very interesting race of 120 yards between Joseph Priddy and Tom Hammond. They are both excellent runners. The race will take place on the 22nd inst. at the office late evening and put up the final deposit for their race. The fact is that the cause each man is stated to be a "flyer" under cover, and the stakes, $500, do not represent all the money involved in the race, as it is looking extremely well, and the surprising Secretary of the park, John H. Galt, has in his pocket an excellent track can be selected if the weather remains fine. The fact is that the Exposition Park promoters to become famous places in all kinds of sports. It is well managed. The referee and starter for the race are to be chosen on Monday, and if the parties cannot agree we have to select these officials. In the meantime, and to prevent any delay, our suggestion is: O. D. Thompson for referee and George Smith for post-time. The race is an honest one on the card, and every one of the integrity of the two men named if they will act. It is to be hoped that they will, because the race is of the kind that will tend to popularize honest sport of a professional kind.

INTERESTING RECORDS.

Figures Showing How the Players of the Players' League Stood.

The official averages of the Players' League have been forwarded to this office, and they are exceedingly interesting, as they show conclusively that the individual players of that League are not the inferior of the players of any other league. For instance, Browning has the batting list with the best average of .327 per cent, and Beckley is second with .325. Carroll is twenty-fourth with a percentage of .302, and the next local man is Fields, with an average of .277.

SPORTING NOTES.

JIMMY GALTIN, the game old sport, is right in the game for his knee is almost well.

IF there is no weather to-day the football match at Exposition Park will produce lots of fun.

CALIFORNIA—George Smith has no public record for the distance you name. It is safe to say he is in the money.

SECRETARY TENER is certainly patriotic. He sticks out for the A. I. and none other. John is a real American.

JOHN CORRETT, the California pugilist, has adopted a new device for hardening his hands. He has had them treated with a special oil.

THE Boston Trimmers have lines out for three miles. They want a new outsider and a third baseman.

R. P. HUNTINGTON, tennis player, may never appear in the court again. He has been injured.

ONE MURDERER HELD.

George Teaters Must Answer for Mrs. Sanders' Death.

THE TOLL-HOUSE TRAGEDY STORY.

The Ghost of Andersonville Still Frightening That Quiet Neighborhood.

A FAMILY OF BOLD THIEVES BROKEN UP.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Pa., October 17.—The preliminary hearing of George Teaters, the young Wheeling man who is charged with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders at the plank road tollhouse last Friday night, took place in the grand jury room, before Squire D. M. Doneho, this afternoon. The time set was 2 o'clock, and an immense crowd had gathered about the place. Colonel W. W. Arnett, of Wheeling, and John M. Braden, Esq., of this place, defended the prisoner.

The evidence introduced by District Attorney W. S. Barker, for the Commonwealth, consisted in evidence chiefly concerning the whereabouts of Teaters and the Durr boys on the evening of the tragedy. Witnesses were introduced at the opening of the hearing, and the testimony of each of the defendants and two other fellows at Legonda about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and had seen Teaters going down the road toward the toll house, and after they had got into the wagon, and after they had seen Teaters, near the house of W. B. McKenna, about a quarter of a mile north of Legonda, and after they had seen Teaters, near a tenant house near McKenna's, at a point near the home of the late Mrs. Sanders. These facts are thought by witness John M. Kenna, were made by a pair of shoes that were identified as those of Teaters by the testimony of the witness, Colonel Arnett, who testified that the witness, Teaters, was not thoroughly acquainted with the situation.
